Good morning to you. My mum and Dad would have been most pleased to see this saying that will be so familiar to and often used by those in highland circles - "Ceud Mìle Fàilte"

You will see this expression in Pub Notices or Hotels across Scotland and it simply means "A hundred thousand Welcomes" Now although we might want to say that to all who come to church this morning we would also want to say -

"Go raibh céad míle maith agaibh"

*which I understand has been translated to mean - A Hundred Thousand Thank You's. As we gather for Worship in church this morning we want to bring Both together, to say to you- Ceud Mìle Fàilte but to God we would say, "Go raibh céad míle maith agaibh"*

Enjoy worship this morning

Luke 14:25-35 New International Version - UK (NIVUK)

The cost of being a disciple

<sup>25</sup> Large crowds were travelling with Jesus, and turning to them he said: <sup>26</sup> ‘If anyone comes to me and does not hate father and mother, wife and children, brothers and sisters – yes, even their own life – such a person cannot be my disciple. <sup>27</sup> And whoever does not carry their cross and follow me cannot be my disciple.

<sup>28</sup> ‘Suppose one of you wants to build a tower. Won’t you first sit down and estimate the cost to see if you have enough money to complete it? <sup>29</sup> For if you lay the foundation and are not able to finish it, everyone who sees it will ridicule you, <sup>30</sup> saying, “This person began to build and wasn’t able to finish.”

<sup>31</sup> ‘Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Won’t he first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup> If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace. <sup>33</sup> In the same way, those of you who do not give up everything you have cannot be my disciples.

<sup>34</sup> ‘Salt is good, but if it loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? <sup>35</sup> It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure heap; it is thrown out.

‘Whoever has ears to hear, let them hear.’
