We have now brought our website up to date. You can view a history of the church, it's functions such as Baptisms, Weddings, Funerals and its work in the community; forthcoming events; what's on throughout the week; office bearer rotas; the latest and previous 7 issues of our weekly Messenger; the latest and previous issues of the Gazette. We now need a volunteer to keep the information, as supplied by all the groups attached to the church, up to date. The work is not onerous and can be done at home. Training with simple user notes will be given. If you would like to volunteer or see what is involved please speak to our Minister Calum Macdonald or Treasurer Peter Watson.

A warm welcome to our Communion Service this morning. As we share in our worship of God together may we each know his ever abiding presence with us. However near or far you have travelled to be here, our hope is that you will enjoy not only the opportunity to worship and give our thanks to God but to enjoy the Fellowship of those round about you as share in the Lord's Supper together. The writer to the Hebrews wrote,

"¹Keep on loving one another as brothers and sisters. ²Do not forget to show hospitality to strangers, for by so doing some people have shown hospitality to angels without knowing it." (Hebrews 13 : 1 -2)

There is an opportunity for our fellowship together to continue after communion over some tea or coffee which will be served in our Jubilee Hall - to which everyone is of course invited. If you need to race away we wish you God's blessing in the coming week

Bible Readings

Psalm 19: 14

May these words of my mouth and this meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer.

1 Corinthians 10 : 14 - 29

Idol feasts and the Lord's Supper

¹⁴ Therefore, my dear friends, flee from idolatry. ¹⁵ I speak to sensible people; judge for yourselves what I say. ¹⁶ Is not the cup of thanksgiving for which we give thanks a participation in the blood of Christ? And is not the bread that we break a participation in the body of Christ? ¹⁷ Because there is one loaf, we, who are many, are one body, for we all share the one loaf.

¹⁸ Consider the people of Israel: do not those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar? ¹⁹ Do I mean then that food sacrificed to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything? ²⁰ No, but the sacrifices of pagans are offered to demons, not to God, and I do not want you to be participants with demons. ²¹ You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons too; you cannot have a part in both the Lord's table and the table of demons. ²² Are we trying to arouse the Lord's jealousy? Are we stronger than he ?

The believer's freedom

²³ 'I have the right to do anything,' you say – but not everything is beneficial. 'I have the right to do anything' – but not everything is constructive. ²⁴ No one should seek their own good, but the good of others.

²⁵ Eat anything sold in the meat market without raising questions of conscience, ²⁶ for, 'The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it.' [f]

²⁷ If an unbeliever invites you to a meal and you want to go, eat whatever is put before you without raising questions of conscience. ²⁸ But if someone says to you, 'This has been offered in sacrifice,' then do not eat it, both for the sake of the one who told you and for the sake of conscience. ²⁹ I am referring to the other person's conscience, not yours. For why is my freedom being judged by another's conscience? ³⁰ If I take part in the meal with thankfulness, why am I denounced because of something I thank God for?

³¹ So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God. ³² Do not cause anyone to stumble, whether Jews, Greeks or the church of God – ³³ even as I try to please everyone in every way. For I am not seeking my own good but the good of many, so that they may be saved.
