A warm welcome to Worship this morning. The Church in Scotland have had a high regard for the Psalms of the Old testament. A verse often quoted

I rejoiced with those who said to me,
"Let us go to the house of the LORD."
(Psalm 122 : 1)

As we join together for worship may we have come knowing that what the psalmist said is true and that we will have been glad of the opportunity to spend time in God's house this fine Sunday morning.

There is an opportunity for our fellowship together to continue after the church service over some tea or coffee which will be served in our Jubilee Hall - to which everyone is of course invited. If you cannot stay we wish you God's blessing in the coming week

Calum D. Macdonald

Afternoon Tea

We hope you will have enjoyed the afternoon tea held in the church on Sat 2nd Feb. The Church raised the sum of £316.43. A big thank you to all who supported us in every way, particularly to the ladies who helped on the day - gratefully accepted and much appreciated.

CHECK OUT OUR

www.parkchurch.org.uk

We have now brought our website up to date. You can view a history of the church, it's functions such as Baptisms, Weddings, Funerals and its work in the community; forthcoming events; what's on throughout the week; office bearer rotas; the latest and previous 7 issues of our weekly Messenger; the latest and previous issues of the Gazette. We now need a volunteer to keep the information, as supplied by all the groups attached to the church, up to date. The work is not onerous and can be done at home. Training with simple user notes will be given. If you would like to volunteer or see what is involved please speak to our Minister Calum Macdonald or Treasurer Peter Watson.

Bible Readings

Psalm 19: 8 - 11

⁸The precepts of the LORD are right, giving joy to the heart.
The commands of the LORD are radiant, giving light to the eyes.

⁹ The fear of the LORD is pure, enduring forever.
The decrees of the LORD are firm, and all of them are righteous.

¹⁰ They are more precious than gold, than much pure gold;
they are sweeter than honey, than honey from the honeycomb.

¹¹ By them your servant is warned; in keeping them there is great reward.

1 Peter 1: 3 -11

Praise to God for a Living Hope

³ Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴ and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade. This inheritance is kept in heaven for you, ⁵ who through faith are shielded by God's power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. ⁶ In all this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. ⁷ These have come so that the proven genuineness of your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. ⁸ Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, ⁹ for you are receiving the end result of your faith, the salvation of your souls.
