A warm welcome to Worship this morning. A chorus written said,

*As we gather may the Spirit work within us
As we gather may glorify his name
Knowing well that as our hearts begin to worship
We'll be blessed because He Came*

As we gather may we know God's blessing through our Worship from the heart and may He speak to that heart this day through his Word Enjoy the fellowship we spend time in God's house this fine Sunday morning. Our fellowship together continue after the service; tea and coffee is available in our Jubilee Hall - to which everyone is of course invited. If you cannot stay we wish you God's blessing in the coming week

Calum D. Macdonald

Afternoon Tea

We hope you will have enjoyed the afternoon tea held in the church on Sat 2nd Feb. Church funds saw the addition of £316.4 through everybody's hard work. A big thank you to all who supported us in every way, particularly to the ladies who helped on the day - gratefully accepted and much appreciated.

CHECK OUT OUR

www.parkchurch.org.uk

We have now brought our website up to date. You can view a history of the church, it's functions such as Baptisms, Weddings, Funerals and its work in the community; forthcoming events; what's on throughout the week; office bearer rotas; the latest and previous 7 issues of our weekly Messenger; the latest and previous issues of the Gazette. We now need a volunteer to keep the information, as supplied by all the groups attached to the church, up to date. The work is not onerous and can be done at home. Training with simple user notes will be given. If you would like to volunteer or see what is involved please speak to our Minister Calum Macdonald or Treasurer Peter Watson.

Flower Convenor

We are grateful to Mrs Norma Whyte and Isobel Cochrane who have been Looking after the Flower Fund these past 3 years and have stepped back leaving the role of Flower Convenor as easy a situation as it can be. This is a much appreciated and much needed ministry to our congregation and parish. To reassure you, the list of duties is as follows

Duties

1. Prep the Calender for 2020

(2019 is already in place and is on display)

2. Flower Arranging & flower Delivery Rotas;

These are prepared on a quarterly basis .

3. The Seasonal Crosses :

these are ably arranged by Mrs Norma Moyes

4. Facilities and materials :

There is a well stocked cupboard with plenty of materials in the Large Hall.

5. Maintaining the Flower Fund receiving and making payments for flowers, etc .

Bible Readings

1 Corinthians 13 : 1 -13 (New International Version - UK)

13 If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. ² If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. ³ If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast but do not have love, I gain nothing.

⁴ Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵ It does not dishonour others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶ Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. ⁷ It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

⁸ Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. ⁹ For we know in part and we prophesy in part, ¹⁰ but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. ¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. ¹² For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known.

¹³ And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.
