The Lord's Supper

Welcome & Intimations

Welcome to our service this morning. Communion is always a high occasion to celebrate when we reflect on what the symbols of Communion represent, reminding us of God the Father's love, of Jesus and his sacrifice, and the gift of the Holy Spirit. What makes the table of the Lord's Supper so special is that it is more than just a memorial. We need to remember that whenever two or three gather for whatever reason but for communion especially the very Spirit of Jesus is present with us. That was his promise as he left this earth for Glory. Today is even more poignant because we will see five of our members in the congregation be Ordained as Ruling Elders of Park Church's Kirk Session. As we celebrate their Call to serve the church in this role for Jenny Cameron, Anne Hamilton, Sally Hamilton, Fiona Mackie & Val Richmond, please also uphold them in your prayers as they enter this new area of church service.

We hope you will be able to remain behind for tea and coffee afterwards to celebrate with them.

Acts 20: 22 - 38 New International Version - UK (NIVUK)

Paul Prepares the Ephesian Elders for what is follow after his departure

²⁵ ‘Now I know that none of you among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom will ever see me again. ²⁶ Therefore, I declare to you today that I am innocent of the blood of any of you. ²⁷ For I have not hesitated to proclaim to you the whole will of God. ²⁸ Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church of God,^[a] which he bought with his own blood.^[b] ²⁹ I know that after I leave, savage wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock. ³⁰ Even from your own number men will arise and distort the truth in order to draw away disciples after them. ³¹ So be on your guard! Remember that for three years I never stopped warning each of you night and day with tears.

³² ‘Now I commit you to God and to the word of his grace, which can build you up and give you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified. ³³ I have not coveted anyone’s silver or gold or clothing. ³⁴ You yourselves know that these hands of mine have supplied my own needs and the needs of my companions. ³⁵ In everything I did, I showed you that by this kind of hard work we must help the weak, remembering the words the Lord Jesus himself said: “It is more blessed to give than to receive.”’

³⁶ When Paul had finished speaking, he knelt down with all of them and prayed. ³⁷ They all wept as they embraced him and kissed him. ³⁸ What grieved them most was his statement that they would never see his face again. Then they accompanied him to the ship.
