Sunday 20th October 2019

Good Morning . In my capacity as Interim moderator, I have to be at Carnwadric Church this morning where I will conduct a Service of Communion with the congregation there. I am grateful to Mrs Ann Smith who has stood in at short notice to lead you in worship and trust she and you will enjoy this week' worship together as she brings God's Word to you.

While the Congregation at Carnwadric are Vacant, I serve at the pleasure of the Presbytery as its Interim Moderator there along with Park Church I will oversee the congregation's meetings in respect of the Vacancy along with the other duties of line managing the Locum (Rev Alister Bull), the Kirk session meetings as well as the many other pastoral duties that parish a minister in post would do.

Please remember Carnwadric at this time where there is so much uncertainty about the future and who will be the next minister. It is easy to become despondent as time goes by when there has been no-one appointed as yet. Perhaps the lesson here for all of us is to remind ourselves that God has his own timing in these things and He doesn't always work to our timetable. The Psalmist said "Be still and know that I am God." That is something not always easy to do. The songwriter said "In his time, He makes all things beautiful in His time" - that is something at times not always easy to see. Yet we continue to trust that God in his goodness will bring all things to a rightful conclusion. I hope in the uncertainty of the week ahead and the events of the week gone by that we all will see God at work in our lives and the lives of others .

Have a great week.

Calum D. Macdonald

JP 134

Jesus Hands were kind hands

Jesus' hands were kind hands,
doing good to all,
Healing pain and sickness,
blessing children small,
Washing tired feet and saving
those who fall;
Jesus' hands were kind hands,
doing good to all.

Take my hands, Lord Jesus,
let them work for you;
Make them strong and gentle,
kind in all I do;
Let me watch you, Jesus,
till I'm gentle too,
Till my hands are kind hands,
quick to work for you.

Let us build a house where love can dwell

Let us build a house where love can dwell
and all can safely live,
a place where saints and children tell how hearts learn to forgive.
Built of hopes and dreams and visions,
rock of faith and vault of grace;
here the love of Christ shall end divisions.

*All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.*

Let us build a house where prophets speak,
and words are strong and true,
where all God's children dare to seek to dream God's reign anew.

Here the cross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's grace;
here as one we claim the faith of Jesus.

*All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.*

Let us build a house where love is found in water, wine and wheat:

a banquet hall on holy ground
where peace and justice meet.

Here the love of God, through Jesus,
is revealed in time and space;
as we share in Christ the feast that frees us.

*All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.*

Let us build a house where hands will reach beyond the wood and stone

to heal and strengthen, serve and teach,
and live the Word they've known.

Here the outcast and the stranger bear the image of God's face;

let us bring an end to fear and danger.

*All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.*

Let us build a house where all are named,
their songs and visions heard and loved and treasured, taught and claimed as words within the Word.

Built of tears and cries and laughter,
prayers of faith and songs of grace,
let this house proclaim from floor to rafter.

*All are welcome, all are welcome,
all are welcome in this place.*

Tune: TWO OAKS

JP 188 One more step along the world I go

One more step along the world I go,
One more step along the world I go;
From the old things to the new,
Keep me travelling along with you:
And it's from the old I travel to the new;
Keep me travelling along with you.

Round the corners of the world I turn,
More and more about the world I learn;
All the new things that I see
You'll be looking at along with me.
And it's from the old I travel to the new;
Keep me travelling along with you.

As I travel through the bad and good,
Keep me travelling the way I should.
Where I see no way to go,
You'll be telling me the way, I know.
And it's from the old I travel to the new;
Keep me travelling along with you.

Give me courage when the world is rough,
Keep me loving though the world is tough;
Leap and sing in all I do,
Keep me travelling along with you:
And it's from the old I travel to the new;
Keep me travelling along with you.

You are older than the world can be,
You are younger than the life in me;
Ever old and ever new,
Keep me travelling along with you:
And it's from the old I travel to the new;
Keep me travelling along with you.
