Sunday 27th October 2019

A crisp autumnal good morning to you and Welcome to worship at Park Church whoever you are whether a visitor to us or a well ken't Face. The observant among you will notice that I have started to grow my winter coat (the Beard) which is slowly each day becoming more established. I tell you that because as we draw closer to the end of October, we can all feel and see how the weather is changing, the leaves are falling , the temperatures are dropping and this week the news was telling us that the old wives tales about those who have arthritis are able to detect weather change just by the aches in their bones is actually true. Scientists have apparently confirmed this in their research findings.

That set me thinking about what else there is that we feel is true and yet others are as yet unable to confirm for themselves. While the church has long since declared Jesus to be one who was more than just a man, there are so many others today who remain unconvinced. It is my prayer that like the research that confirms that aching arthritic bones can indeed inform the individual of changes in atmospheric pressure and pending weather change, that one day people will come to a firm conclusion of who this Jesus is as well as acknowledging what the Son of God and our Saviour has done for not just us but indeed for all.

"He died that we might be forgiven,
he died to make us good,
that we might go at last to heaven,
saved by his precious blood".

Have a great week.

Calum D. Macdonald

Tell the world that Jesus loves You

Tell the world that Jesus loves you
Tell them you've found a forever friend
You've opened up your heart's door to Him
The love of Jesus has no end

You can choose what not to believe in
You can deny there's a heaven above
But once you take a look at Jesus
There's no denying that God is Love Tell the world that Jesus loves you

Tell them you've found a forever friend
You've opened up your heart's door to Him
The love of Jesus has no end

If you want to show that you really love Him
If you want to prove that your love is true
Then you'll obey the word He's spoken
And do all the things He's commanded you to

Tell the world that Jesus loves you
Tell them you've found a forever friend
You've opened up your heart's door to Him
The love of Jesus has no end
