Benediction

A warm welcome to you this morning as we gather for worship. Whoever you are please feel free to come through for tea and coffee after the service. If you have to race away we wish you Godspeed and hope you have enjoyed your time with us.

Sunday 8th September 2019

A warm welcome to you this morning. I Hope you will be looking forward to worship this morning. Our Depute Organist this morning is Mr Fraser Harrington and we hope he will easily feel at home in our midst and we formally thank him for being available to play our Pipe Organ this morning. I am also grateful to Rev Jim Whyte who has agreed to lead the service as I take some time off to relax and get away from it all and I do so knowing that you are in his safe hands . The challenge of our Christian faith is to always be looking to find the ways by which we can give thanks in every success. whether in church on Sunday morning or at work on the Monday morning or on the golf course or bowling club later in the week. No matter what, we give thanks for his goodness to us in the best of times and also the worst of times, in the joy of celebration and sadness of grief. wherever we may be and in whatever we may be doing , know the promise of God to us is that when we...

" draw near to God , he will draw near to You." (James 4: 8)

James 1:19-27

New International Version - UK (NIVUK)

Listening and doing

¹⁹ My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, ²⁰ because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. ²¹ Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent, and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you.

²⁶ Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is worthless. ²⁷ Religion that God our Father accepts as pure and faultless is this: to look after orphans and widows in their distress and to keep oneself from being polluted by the world.
