A Word of Welcome

Good morning and a very warm welcome to Worship here in Park Church. Whoever you are today, it is our hope that you will feel at ease in our company very quickly as we worship together. It is always our desire that you will feel that awareness of God's presence and our prayer is you leave with a sense of His Blessing.

If you are free after the service, please feel free to remain behind for tea and coffee after the service continuing the fellowship we have thus so far enjoyed in our Worship Service. Should you need to need to race away, we wish you every blessing.

Calum D. Macdonald

Minister on Holiday & Pastoral Cover

Calum and Wilma are on holiday until the 10th February. On Sunday 12th February the Sacrament of Communion will take place during our time of Worship. Our retiring offering will be in aid of the Lodging House Mission.

In the event of there being a need for Pastoral assistance, please notify our Session Clerk Mr. David Mackie or, alternatively, contact Rev Jim Gemmell of Carnwadric Church.

LHM

Stock a sock appeal

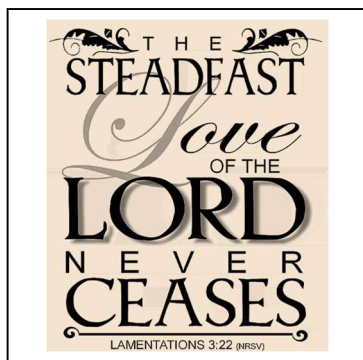

While we would often do this at Christmas this is the kind of Appeal that could be made at any time of the year when thinking of those who are not as fortunate as ourselves.

The Lodging House Mission could use your help in this simple way. They will gratefully receive your gifts of Socks , Hats, Scarves and Gloves.

For further information please speak with Jenny Cameron
