Good Morning, everyone,
I hope you all enjoyed the service last week where with six congregations in attendance, the church was very full. Following on from that we return on this, the Sunday of the September Holiday Weekend. I trust the week before has been a good one and that you will feel the way the psalmist did going up to the Temple of Jerusalem when he said, "I was glad when they said to me, "Let us go up to the Temple of the Lord." I will look forward to joining with you in Worship as we come to the Lord's House to give Him our thanks and praise.

As usual there will be an opportunity for Tea and coffee after the service where our fellowship can continue for a wee while longer.

With Best Wishes for the week ahead

Calum D. Macdonald

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

Our Operation Christmas Child shoebox appeal has so far filled 20 shoeboxes full of a variety of gifts for children in Eastern Europe. We believe that we have sufficient goods to fill a further 20 boxes and we are waiting for these to be delivered.

In the meantime, should you wish to make a contribution, each box remaining still needs a retainer of £5 per box to cover the cost of international transport. Any help with this would be

Hymn

I'd like to teach the world to sing

I'd like to teach the world to sing
Of Jesus and his Grace
Of how He went to Calvary
And died there in our place

Chorus

*He died, He Rose, He's with us now
His gift of Love is free ;
And if we listen to his voice,
We'll live eternally*

He Led a very Humble life,
The things he taught were pure;
And if we put our trust in Him
Our lives will be secure.

Chorus...

Oh some folks say there is no God,
But they're too blind to see
That Jesus is the only way
To Life for You and Me

Chorus....
